his wife Honnamma Nagathli, and a married daughter Akkamma

The S.H.T officer recommends that the pension of Rs 42-3-0 which the late Mr Keshava was enjoying may be registered in the joint names of his two sons who are agreeable to this arrangement - But the consent of the mother to the proposed registry of the pension has not been obtained. She is stated to be under the protection of her younger son N. K. Thimmappa Naik (See his statement before the Amildar Molakalmuru)

The brothers are divided in interest and are living separately - (See their statement) It is for orders if the consent of the mother be obtained before sanctioning the proposed of the pension so that the interest of the may be safeguarded

better, if the statement of the widow of the deceased is also taken. No doubt it is said that for the last 8 to 10 years, she and her husband were living with their younger son, and that since she is a gotha lady her statement has not been recorded. Still, in her own interests, it is better that she indicate in writing, her willingness or otherwise, to be considered in the future.
